SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Officers stayed busy through tonight's shift investigating a variety of calls for service, including numerous disturbances that were handled without the need for enforcement action. Officers also investigated an injury traffic collision on East Avenue between a car and motorcycle. The rider was taken to a local hospital for treatment, and drugs or alcohol do not appear to be a factor in the collision. Later in the night, officers responded to a local apartment complex to investigate a report of a robbery. The victim suffered minor injuries, and the investigation is on-going.
