SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Dayshift had a very bust day to end the A Team workweek. Several larceny reports were taken that were reported online and through dispatch. Early in the shift, officers responded to the death of a 33-year-old subject with no documented medical conditions. The Coroner's Office responded and took custody of the body for an autopsy. Later in the shift, officers were dispatched to a possible court order violation in progress. The restrained person was found hiding near the protected person's residence. He was arrested and booked into jail.
