SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Today was another steady day regarding call volume. Officers responded to a disturbance in which the mother claimed her adult son hit her with his hat. Both parties had consumed alcohol, and the son was arrested for battery, per a citizen's arrest. They also responded to a juvenile student from one of the high schools. This student made comments of wanting to kill himself. He was located and detained for a mental health hold. Additionally, Officers responded for a security check on a subject who had not been at work since Tuesday. When Officers arrived, they located him in the shed, deceased. No signs of foul play found.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Calls for service were steady but manageable throughout the shift. Most calls were handled without officers having to take enforcement action. Officers were dispatched to vehicle vs. bicyclist injury accident in the area of W. F St. and 7th St. As officers were responding, they were advised the responsible vehicle was a motorcycle and had fled the scene. Upon arrival, officers located the bicyclist laying on the street, with obvious injuries. He was transported to a local hospital for treatment. The motorcycle was last seen westbound on W. F St. This is an on-going investigation at this time.
