Today's dayshift call volume was low, but some of the calls that were handled were time consuming. Officers responded to a report of a male who was pushing a female, in the parking lot of Motel 6. Officers discovered that a female was arguing with her boyfriend in their motel room. She tried to leave several times, but the boyfriend would push her back onto the bed. He also threatened to kill her. He was arrested for Domestic Violence related crimes. She was also issued an Emergency Protective Order. Officers also responded to a local shopping center for a report of a subject who was unresponsive and in a vehicle. Upon contact, it was found that he was not under the influence, or in need of medical care. A records check revealed that the male was on parole. A search was done and Officers found cocaine and fentanyl pills. He was arrested and booked for narcotics related crimes, and a parole hold was placed as well.
