SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

The day was relatively slow as it related to the amount of calls we handled. One call involved an elderly female being assaulted by her adult son. Evidence and statements suggest he attempted to kill his mother by strangulation. Upon entry into the residence it was determined he left prior to our arrival. He reportedly stole his father's vehicle and it was captured on video heading westbound from the area. The man is currently wanted for multiple felony charges. No life-threatening injuries were sustained.
