SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

It was a busy and hot start to the work week on Labor Day, with officers handling several in-progress incidents. One of the incidents involved a domestic battery at a local motel. After conducting their investigation, officers arrested a male suspect for assaulting his significant other, causing visible injuries, and for false imprisonment. During the shift, officers also arrested two individuals with outstanding warrants and another subject for public intoxication.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Good shift throughout the night for swing shift. Officers made a traffic stop on a vehicle for running a red light. The driver was intoxicated as well as his passenger. A DUI investigation was initiated resulting in the driver being arrested for DUI charges. The passenger was arrested for public intoxication and lied about his name. He had multiple active misdemeanor and felony warrants for his arrest. Both were booked into jail. Officers responded to an assault and battery where the suspects were located down the road from the victim. All suspects were teenagers (juveniles) and after being positively identified were arrested and cited out to their parents for the assault and battery. Officers contacted a subject who was too intoxicated to care for himself in public. He was arrested and booked into jail.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Today is our shifts first day back for our workweek. An Officer stopped a female who was in possession of a shopping cart. Officers learned the female had a warrant for her arrest. She was placed under arrest and the shopping cart was returned to the store. Officers conducted a consensual encounter with a male who provided his name. Officers learned the male had a warrant for his arrest. The male was placed under arrest and booked into Jail. Calls for service were slower tonight possibly due to the rain which lasted most of the night.
